LLOREDA · CAMACHO &CO

ÁNGELA MARÍA SALAZAR

Partner

Email: asalazar@lloredacamacho.com

Phone: (+57-601) 3264270

LinkedIn: Ángela María Salazar

Angela María joined the firm in 2009 and is a Partner and codirector of the Natural Resources practice.

She is a lawyer graduate of Universidad del Rosario and holds two postgraduate degrees in Environmental Law at Universidad del Rosario, and in Communitarian Law at Université Paris II Panthéon-Assas.

Angela has almost 20 years of experience, 15 of which have been specifically devoted to the mining and environmental practice.

She has been involved in the financing construction processes of the three most modern gold mines in the country, she has also actively participated in prior consultation and negotiation processes with communities, has integrated the team responsible for the negotiation and drafting of collaboration contracts joint venture, purchase and sale contracts, easement agreements, operation agreements and all types of contracts required for the operation of a mining company in Colombia.

Her experience in environmental procedures includes advising mining companies in processes of subtraction of forest reserve areas and defending companies from different sectors of the economy against administrative investigations by the environmental authorities.

PRACTICE AREAS

- Mining law

RECOGNITIONS:

- Band 2 – Chambers & Partners
- Next Generation Partners – The Legal500